First American Coin Dealer to Visit

Post-war Occupied Germany

The visit to Harnock House, a country-club setting for the big brass . . . Everything available for the tired occupation personnel . . . Restaurant, bar, movie theatre, reading room, and dancing to an 8-piece German orchestra . . . Next day a visit and lunch in Truman Hall, across the street (Clayallee) from McCloy's headquarters . . . Clayallee named by the children of Germany in honor of McCloy's predecessor . . . The thrill of going thru Brandenburg Gate into the Soviet Zone enroute to the Opera . . . The red flag atop the 'Gate' with searchlights playing on it . . . My first sight of three Russian Colonels sitting just behind me . . . An American Major and a Colonel just half dozen seats away from them . . . The music and singing of the "Masked Ball" superb but playing to a sombre audience . . . Intermission and a walk to the bar and the Berlin version of a hot dog stand . . . Well dressed men and women holding a fat wurst in one hand (sans napkin) and a hard roll in other . . . The exhilaration of 15 curtain calls at the finale . . . The ride back to the British Zone and a night cap at Valesca's . . . The proprietress of the bistro owner of previous joints in Greenwich Village (NY), Soho, London and 'Pigallee' in Paris . . . Newspaper stories pasted on the walls to prove the point . . . Waitresses doubling as entertainers on a 2x4 platform . . . The flower 'girl' who was not a girl . . . Female couples indulging in their own version of "The Well of Loneliness" . . . To bed in a bitter cold room.

The visits to Antique and curiosity shops; good bargains if you know the stuff . . . The fortune of finding an auction of paintings and books with about two-score numismatic books among the lots . . . The meeting with dealers in their homes serving as shops . . . As only one room is kept warm, the necessity of doing business in almost forty-five degree cold . . . Their hospitality and friendliness, and thanks for leaving them Christmas money in return for coins . . . Evening at the Opera, this time for a ballet, 'Abraxas' . . . Not a spoken word of course, but the cast's motions left no reason why it was banned in Bavaria . . . Even at that, one torrid scene was prohibited in Berlin . . . The Former Royal Box, empty, similar to the old one in the theatre in the Russian Zone . . . The theatre of the ballet, I'm told, had been Hitler's favorite . . . The 'Queen's Club' a most unusual sight in war-ravaged Berlin . . . The finest food, wines and service with an orchestra and girl singer featuring American songs in perfect English . . . The ride back to the hotel and a stop at the well-lit 'bunker' . . . This was largest in Germany and accommodated 20,000 during air-raids.

Daylight strolls to 'cafes' and its many unusual sights . . . Brewery trucks being hauled by four horses, once a familiar sight in every American city . . . The street water pumps with handles almost 6 feet long for use of the public . . . Most apartments are bombed out and have no central water or heating systems . . . Scores of chimneys protrude from as many windows in apartments, providing individual heating for each room . . . The interview at the hotel for the newspaper 'See' by a Countess . . . The meeting of Germany's most famous actress Vini Marcus and her mother . . . Both visiting relatives—owner of my hotel and son, who was my constant host . . . An evening with my host in his apartment over a warm bottle of wine . . . The utter lack of emotion in telling of the loss of his leg outside of Stalin-grad . . . The acceptance of his and other wounded soldiers' fates as 'lucky'—others having been slaughtered.

The plane trip to Hamburg—as wild a ride as I ever want to take . . . Seagram's V-O with Naval Attache in from Moscow after 7 months helped some . . . His request to stay with me in Hamburg rather than officer's club (to get away from uniforms) was flattering and proved to be pleasant . . . The 'bridal suite' given us and my first room with heat . . . The ride to San Str. (name escapes me) the Broadway of Hamburg . . . Directed to Onkle Hugo for dinner was a first class tip . . . Cocktails, steaks that big——and all fixings, bottle of wine and coffee about $2.25 for the two of us . . . Across the street to a night club, 'a-la-clip' helped my friend Hy brush the Moscow cobwebs . . . The daylight view of Hamburg and the harbor esplanade . . . A beautiful unbombed city, skipped as the British wanted it as their headquarters . . . The boats tied to the wharf serving lunch and dinner . . . The coin dealers not allowed by the British to sell anything but notgeld . . . The thrill of finding "Gaedechens" in three volumes, important reference on Hamburg coins in a magnificent binding (sorry, its for my own library) . . . To square myself some black unmentionables as a Christmas present for Frances.

The plane ride back to Frankfurt on Scandinavian's new ship 'Viking' . . . Very similar to our Constellation but with perhaps less vibration . . . The embarrassment of the stewardess when after asking me in German what newspaper I preferred I replied, "The Herald Tribune or Times" . . . Her own English, however, was as good as the lunch that followed . . . Arriving in Frankfurt for the third time made me feel at home . . . A 20 mile trip by cab to a sanitarium to see a banker about coins . . . The need of a new hat after riding in Hitler's 'Dream Car' the Volkswag—smaller than a chicken coop, but not as high . . . The night spots again with my previously-made State Dept. friends . . . To bed early for a six a. m. plane to Berlin.

The warm greetings on arrival at Templehof by officials and American Airlines manager Schulz . . . The bleak ride thru Berlin's Sunday streets to the hotel to deposit my bags . . . The hurried unpacking in order to attend the first Numismatic Exhibition in Berlin since 1939 . . . The greetings by thirty-odd collectors who had been expecting me . . . Everyone wearing overcoats while viewing the 23 different displays . . . Displays that would win National Coin Week prizes if American collectors would put as much time and work into their own efforts . . . Among the main exhibits were Grecian money, Roman money, Roman gold, Money of the Middleages, German 1872-1918, Saxon money, Multiple talers, Chinese money, and Numismatic Medals among others . . . The warm feeling on being shown one presented to them by the Boston Numismatic Society on its 25th Anniversary . . . Their insistence on taking it out of the frame to show me the inscription, Presented to "Numismatische Gesellschaft zu Berlin" . . . Knowing of Henry Schuhmaker's search for their whereabouts, am sure he will be delighted to know of this one . . . The pleasant coffee and kuhken with gobs of whipped-cream with two dealers, their charming wives and daughter as my guests . . . Next day perusing the Berlin shops for Christmas presents as my arrival stateside would be too late.

The plane trip to Frankfurt for the fourth time . . . Missing of Pan American plane to London killed my eight hour planned stay there . . . The B. E. A. plane to London and their hospitality of providing a limousine gratis, when I said I was staying at Claridge's . . . The walk to Piccadilly Circus and the "Hello Dearie" by a lady of the evening . . . The limitation of a restaurant meal to 5 shillings, about seventy cents . . . The incongruity of being in one of the world's finest hotels and not being able to get an egg or bacon . . . The disappointment in not being able to see Gil Askew, who on the phone said he and the Mrs. had expected to kill the fatted calf for me . . . The confusion in having a car pass you on the right side of yours, the result of driving on the left in England . . . The final clearance and a cable to Frances and off again on American's Stratocruiser . . . The stop this time at Shannon, and the steak, ale and stout, etc. on the Airlines . . . The repetition of a fine trip across the water, but this time only 380 MPH due to headwinds . . . The stop at Gander long enough for a Newfoundland version of malted milk . . . The sight of the amber beads of Robert Moses' network of parkways . . . The perfect three-point landing at Idlewild, the termination of eight successful takeoffs and landings in 23 days . . . The one hour holdup by the Customs while visitors are kept waiting outside . . . Triple Impression . . . Meeting with Frances and home. Thanks for reading—hope I haven't bored you. FJK

Katen Koin Kapers

The Coin House
Organ to end all such blurbs.
Vol. 2, No. 3
March, 1950

Correction, please. In the November 1949 issue of the 'Kapers' we made a statement that the Stowell Company would again print 'The Numismatist' for half the cost or less. As of the date this is written, February 15th, I would like to explain that statement. Mr. Stowell, of course, did not make that statement, and, although he printed my catalog, he personally does not do the proof-reading. In my talks with Mr. Stowell during the past year we had always discussed tentative figures on the basis of the circulation at the time he was printing the magazine. Since then, up until 6 months ago, membership had grown appreciably and the circulation figures with it. Naturally the cost of printing would be increased proportionately.

Compare the actual figures, and the ANA would still effect a tremendous saving in changing our printer: For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949, the ANA paid $31,115.56 for printing plus $1,239.25 for mailing envelopes, exclusive of photographs, cuts or postage. This made a grand total of $32,354.81. The bid submitted by the Stowell Printing Co., on a two-year contract basis would save the ANA $7,154.81 PER YEAR.

CAN WE AFFORD TO OVERLOOK SUCH A TREMENDOUS SAVING?

Tying in with the above is a letter read at the San Francisco Convention by Mr. John J. Pittman of Rochester, N. Y. The contents of this letter was referred to and commented upon in the October 1949 issue of The Numismatist, pages 597 and 598, but the contents never divulged. Who censors the minutes of the convention? The letter is herewith printed in full:

"To whom it may concern:"

"This is to certify that The Numismatist magazine which we printed and distributed for about 27 years, out of a clear sky was taken away from us, and given to another firm in Wichita, Kansas. The excuse was that the service was so bad and the correspondence was so far that it could not meet the requirements, hence it was taken away as stated."

"We were always in a position to give the Numismatic Association the best for the least and we cannot see why we cannot continue to do so. We know that we can save the A. N. A. from $5,000.00 to $7,000.00 a year. I think that such a great amount of money be taken into consideration and I don't think that the promptness which they say is lacking can compensate for that amount of money."

"We propose to accept the printing of the magazine again. I think it is only fair that we should have the chance to discuss it with the Board of Governors as well as the President and put it up to them, if it was fair in the way this matter was handled."

"We would appreciate that you take this particular case under advisement before the Board of Governors or the newly elected Board as well as the Business Managers and all those present at the Convention for discussion."

Signed: J. W. Stowell Printing Company
By: John W. Stowell, Jr.

Many questions are being asked. "Why were not the minutes of the San Francisco Convention fully and accurately reported?" "Why was it necessary for an ANA Life Member to use the medium of his auction catalog, in order that the entire membership be informed of what was happening?" "Why has it taken the new Board of Governors so long to consider bids—a letter written by a member of the Board of Governors dated January 26, 1950 states, "All the bids will shortly be considered by the officials of the ANA . . ."

I had hoped to 'coast' this month on the ANA situation. There were several considerations. Primarily, I was hoping that the ANA higherups would have by this time written me or other ANA members in an effort to sit down and adjust whatever differences may exist. No such communication has been received. The other considerations were of a business nature. Business has been very good both retail and mail, thus leaving little time for writing auction copy or preparing for my fine February Sale, just two days off. The third factor is my departure Tuesday for Europe. Again by American Overseas Airlines, this time besides Germany, my itinerary will include Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands and London. By your bids and letters you have told me what you want in coins.

BUT—It's later than you think! Time is passing and ACTION IS NEEDED!

On February 3, 1950, I wrote Mr. M. Vernon Sheldon, President of the ANA as follows:

It has come to my attention that you have offered * to treat in editorial form, a two page letter written by Mr. Charles W. Foster and dated December 28, 1949. This letter was to be given preparatory assistance by Col. Moss and the editor of The Numismatist.

As a member of the American Numismatic Association, I respectfully request to learn whether the policy affecting "controversial issues" on material published in The Numismatist has been changed. Some months ago, a full page advertisement was refused by your business manager, Mr. Burton Saxton, on grounds that controversial matters could not be aired in The Numismatist. Inasmuch as you are now offering to use Mr. Foster's letter in an editorial, it occurred to me that the above policy may have been changed and if so would appreciate being advised. Sincerely yours, (Signed) Frank J. Katen.

I have not had the courtesy of a reply after 12 days.

I REPEAT—It's later than you think! Take the case of a national stamp organization that had 'trouble' within, last year. A new national society was formed and already they have 3000 members and are recruiting at the rate of 300 a month. Shall this happen to the American Numismatic Association? Cannot the 'big brass' of the ANA really become big in stature and face the facts by laying the cards on the table? Cannot the 3 members of the board of governors who were said not to be rubber stamps for the officers, get action? Or have they too, become rubber stamps?

Just Asking. Wonder how far behind our secretary is in reporting resignations in The Numismatist? I have three letters before me from members who have resigned, but have not yet seen their names reported. Here is a typical one: "Dear Frank: Your catalog came too late for any bids—I received it the 5th. (January). It did not come too late for me to carefully read your quotes etc. regarding the ANA. I sent them my resignation this date. I'll consider rejoining if your crusade is successful." (Signed)

Another letter: Your "Kapers" are getting to the point more solidly, and when I see the screaming from _____ (surrounded by _____!) for no investigation, then we can't help but feel that you are hitting "vital spots." No wonder they say "no investigation!"

I recognize some of the other words used as to who they come from, particularly one from _____, as I was told those same words myself by the one who wrote them, (_____) so there is no doubt but that the truth is being told.

I think you are also right in getting these opinions aired, as no monthly publication would accept them, for in the case of the ANA the people who would censor such matters are the ones who need to reform for the good of the A. N. A.

_____ recently wrote me that when he sees me next spring up this way he would have some words for me to swallow! I wrote back that I saw no reason to swallow any words, since my many letters of protest and attempts to find out what, why and when, were in quest of the truth over the past 2 years.

With a continuous show of interest by the members at large from all parts of the country "you'll soon have 'em dancing Kapers!" (Signed)

Some Excerpts on the Committee of Eighty. ". . . but I am not so new as not to know that there's something screwy some place and the "convention mess" was a (or the) pay off. Am sending along $5.00 to the Committee of Eighty. Sorry I was not a bit earlier." (Signed) _____ "Please add my $5.00 to the Committee. Keep punching . . ." (Signed) _____ ". . . and my $5.00 is enclosed. If you wish to name names and places, just say the word." (Signed)

* Offer was declined by Mr. Foster.

I could go on but I am getting very tired, and still have much work to do, before I leave for Europe six days hence. In closing this issue I would like to do so on a happier vein and can think of no better way than to quote a letter and a few comments:

Dear Mr. Katen: This is the first time I have been able to bid at one of your auctions, and it is such a beautiful sale that I feel a few lines are necessary. German coins are my specialty, for several reasons, and this sale is the finest I have ever seen offered. While a relatively young collector (with a young pocket book) I have only bid on coins I felt I could really afford, and my quotes may be slightly low on a few, so please forgive me. I spent 3 years in Berlin with the Military Government and so your "Double Impressions" were deeply appreciated. While there I dealt exclusively with ——— (American Sector) and thru him really started my collection off to a good start as far as quality of coins is concerned. Did you perhaps see him while in Berlin?

Now for a little flattery (which I think you deserve). I have received several auction catalogs from you and they all seem to have a very nice variety of coins to select from. You seem to have by far, the best German coins to offer and this amazes me. I would sure give my right arm to know your secret of how you acquired the coins in this sale.

I have one request I would like to make. As I said before, my "young budget" often makes it impossible for me to bid at one of your auctions. If I may ask it, I would like to pay for your catalogs whenever it comes to the point of your having to drop me because of lack of business. I will say that I bid almost entirely only on coins of Germany and so I often bid very little because there are so few (until this sale) around. But your catalogs are so nice to use as references for a project I am attempting that I would really hate to be cut off the list.

I hope I haven't bored you, and I extend a very sincere congratulation for your sales and service ("Kapers") that you extend all over the country by or thru your catalog. It has impressed me greatly and I shall endeavor to reciprocate in my way by bidding. (Signed)

Thanks for the bouquet! You and thousands of other 'g. i. collectors' prompted me to have painted on my door "The Nicest People Pass Thru This Door" and that means in person or by mail. Confidentially, a 50c prices realized list keeps a collector on my mailing list for 6 months.

QUOTES: I enjoyed reading about your trip overseas. It must have been a wonderful experience . . . Believe you are the only dealer putting out the duplicate bid sheet and tied together for handy use with a carbon. Us collectors notice and appreciate these little extras. With kindest personal regards . . . I like your new catalog . . . Glad you had a fine trip—If your 'beefs' are correct and for the good of the Association, I'm behind you 100% . . . This is one of your best catalogues yet. Like the arrangement. Keep it up . . . Many, many thanks, 'Frank.'

So here we go again, second time within three months—to Europe that is. And if we can bring back something for you, perhaps a lace shawl for Aunt Mathilda, please air-mail your request to Frances. She will forward it to me. At the risk of being repetitious, and now Frances, Idlewild Airport, please.

Wer weiß schon, daß Münzensammeln auch ein Beruf ist? Es muß wohl so sein; denn Mr. Frank J. Katén übt ihn aus: nicht als hobby, sondern als Lebensaufgabe. Mr. Katén, Abgesandter der amerikanischen Numismatic Society, kam nach Berlin — wohnt im Hotel am Steinplatz —, um mit den deutschen Münzensammlern Fühlung aufzunehmen. Frankfurt und den Westen hat er schon hinter sich. Ein junger, äußerst ernsthafter Herr mit grellbuntem Schlips, voller Neugier nach diesem seltsamen Berlin. Sein Hauptinteresse gilt zwar den römischen Münzen der späten Kaiserzeit; was ihn aber nicht hindert, täglich etliche Stunden in mehreren Cafés zu verbringen „... denn ich will doch etwas sehen von dieser Stadt, ich will die Menschen beobachten. Ich bin zwar zum erstenmal hier. Aber wir haben alle so viel gelesen von Berlin, soviel über diese Stadt gesprochen, daß meine Neugier nur begreiflich ist.“
